Definitions for Forms of Ownership

As a property or homeowner, your deed defines the form of ownership and how the title for the property changes upon the death of an owner. The following definitions are the most common references in a deed:

Sole Ownership

Exclusive ownership. An ownership so complete that no other person has any interest in the property.

Joint Tenancy

An undivided interest in property, taken by two or more joint tenants. The interests must be equal, accruing under the same conveyance, and beginning at the same time. Upon the death of a joint tenant, the interest passes to the surviving joint tenants, rather than to the heirs of the deceased.

Tenancy in Common

An undivided ownership in real estate by two or more persons. The interests need not be equal, and in the event of the death of one of the owners, no right of survivorship in the other owners exists.

Tenancy by the Entirety

A form of ownership by husband and wife whereby each owns the entire property. In the event of death of one, the survivor owns the property without probate.

“Right of Survivorship” (NOTE – this is not an ownership type)

The right of a survivor of a deceased person to the property of said deceased. A distinguishing characteristic of a joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety relationship.

Recording Requirements

1. Deeds must be dated, signed & notarized.
2. Parties involved must be named.
3. Grantee's (buyer) address must be listed.
4. Deeds require a complete legal description.

A list of exempt transfers is listed on the reverse side of this page. If the transaction is exempt, the completed exemption statement must be included on the deed.
